

Emily's Beatitudes

When you feel like you are lacking you are blessed because you will find your abundance in Him.

*When your heart is broken
you are blessed because He will come to mend you.*

*When you become content where you are
you are blessed because you will learn to see God in everything.*

*When you are empty and unsatisfied
you are blessed because He will come to fill you.*

*When you offer your heart to someone in need
you are blessed
because your heart will become like His.*

*When you seek for the good
you are blessed
because that is where you will find God.*

*When your relationships need reconciliation
you are blessed
because your Father is the giver of peace.*

*When you feel like you don't belong
you are blessed because He has already welcomed you in.*
